Re: Election Rules – Campaigning

Dear Board of Directors Candidates,

During the past few weeks I have received numerous questions as to restrictions for campaigning.

This election cycle we are facing a historic amount of petitions that were taken out and have over a dozen candidates who will be eligible to run for the Board of Directors.

Unfortunately, there is nothing I can do to fully please all candidates as to how the campaigning rules should be changed. Current election rules state that if a flyer is passed around (as numerous flyers have been) with mention of any candidate in said flyer, the candidate is to be disqualified. However, in order to have an inclusive process and not disqualify eligible candidates by their opponents, we will change current rules to allow campaign material to be handed out but not posted. Campaign material CANNOT be attached in any way to the property of the complex. Anyone found attaching any material to the property of our complex will be fined appropriately.

Good luck to all candidates. Remember that the rules of libel and slander do apply, so be civil.

Sincerely,

Igor Oberman
